

ORDINANCE NO. A 12

TOWN OF DECATUR, MISSISSIPPI

AN ORDINANCE PROVIDING FOR THE DETENTION AND KEEPING OF ESTRAY LIVESTOCK WITHIN THE TOWN OF DECATUR, MISSISSIPPI.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE MAYOR AND BOARD OF ALDERMEN OF THE TOWN OF DECATUR, MISSISSIPPI.

SECTION 1. That from and after the passage of this act it shall be unlawful for any person or persons to allow his or her livestock to run loose within the corporate limits of the Town of Decatur and every such person shall keep such livestock within a safe enclosure upon his or her land or provide for the keeping of his cattle in such an enclosure.

SECTION 2. That if any such livestock is found to be astray within the corporate limits of the Town of Decatur, the Marshall of said Town is hereby authorized to take such stock into custody and placing them in a safe enclosure; the said Marshall shall as soon as practicable notify the owner of such stock, if the same may be determined, that he has such stock in custody.

SECTION 3. That if the owner of such astray livestock shall not take up his stock within 7 days from the time they are taken into custody, the Marshall shall take proceedings for the sale of such stock as otherwise provided by law in the case of astray.

SECTION 4. That the Marshall or other "Pond Pen Keeper" appointed by this Board shall be allowed and the owner of such stray livestock shall pay, when such stock shall be taken up, a fee of $1.00 for each animal so taken and such owner shall thereafter pay the sum of $1.00 a day for such animal so taken which fine shall be paid to the Clerk of this Board and shall go into the Court Fines Fund of said Town.

SECTION 5. That the Marshall of said Town is hereby authorized to collect a reasonable amount from the owner of such astray for the care and keeping of such livestock.

SECTION 6. That this Ordinance take effect from and after the date of its passage for cause shown.

The above ordinance was passed by unanimous vote on the Motion by A.J. Blackburn and second by G.E. Crawford on March 7, 1950, at a regular meeting.